

Jeff Bader, author of
May No Soldier Go Unloved,
and
Patti Patton-Bader,
Founder of Soldiers' Angels, invite you.

In 2003, an ordinary mother had a son serving in Iraq. Disappointed to learn that members of his unit were not receiving mail from home, she started an organization to support the deployed troops.

Four years later, Soldiers' Angels has tens of thousands of members supporting hundreds of thousands of servicemembers.

Wednesday, 7 p.m.
November 21, 2007

Please join Jeff Bader, author of May No Soldier Go Unloved, and Patti Patton-Bader, the Founder of Soldiers' Angels, to hear how they turned a kitchen-table endeavor into the largest military support organization in the world.

A book signing will follow.
